HOOVER TO MAKE WHIRLWIND CAMPAIGN SOON

TWO WEEKS' TOUR ACROSS UNITED STATES

ITINERARY TO RANGE FROM BOSTON TO SAN FRANCISCO

EXPECTED TO START FIRST SPEECH IN EAST AT BOSTON ON OCTOBER 24

By PAUL R. MALLON (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Sept. 28.—Tentative plans are being laid for Herbert Hoover to make a whirlwind windup of his presidential campaign with a two weeks' tour across the country from Boston to San Francisco.

The date of the nominee's final eastern speech in Boston has not yet been determined, leaving him free to frame his plans according to the demands of the final campaign. If, however, this new scheme is adopted, he would speak in Boston Oct. 24, starting west from there that night.

Four or five important speeches en route would be included on his program if he follows the demands of some of his managers.

Invitations have come to him from a dozen cities including Buffalo, Cleveland, Chicago, Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Boise, Butte, Oklahoma, Texas, Seattle and San Francisco. His acceptances will be determined first by the route he chooses to go to his Pacific coast home and secondly by the political expediency.

Hoover does not think much of the plan to make numerous speeches. He does sympathize with the proposal for setting out westward from Boston, as that would enable him to meet masses of voters just before election day. He would be willing to make one or two fixed speeches and several other smaller ones urging citizens to vote.

If this arrangement is adopted, Hoover probably would close the campaign with a speech in San Francisco before he returns to his home at Palo Alto, 30 miles south, to vote.

Only two speeches thus far have been set officially, Elizabethton, Tenn., Oct. 6 and New York Oct. 17. Under a last minute revision of plans, Hoover will remain an hour longer in Johnson City, Tenn., the night of Oct. 6, than originally stated in order that he may attend a dinner of the chamber of commerce there. No other change has been made in the original schedule which calls for a 31-hour trip to the southern mountain city.

Hoover had no announced callers today and went to work on the printer's copy of his Elizabethton speech, hoping to finish it before night.

GENE TUNNEY IS TO BE MARRIED SHORTLY, REPORTED

Rome, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Gene Tunney arrived by train from France today. It is generally understood he plans to be married shortly in Sorrento to Miss Mary Lauder.

Rome, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Gene Tunney reached Rome today and at once began preparations for his forthcoming marriage to Miss Mary Josephine Lauder.

Tunney maintained strict seclusion and gave orders that he was not to be disturbed by interviewers.

The former champion was understood to have discussed formalities connected with the wedding. He also made personal calls in this city to arrange preparation of the necessary legal documents.

Miss Lauder, now en route to Italy, is booked to stay at Naples. Whether the wedding will be there, or at Sorrento, nearby, or in Rome has not been disclosed definitely.

It was reported on good authority that Tunney intends to take a private villa surrounded by high walls. All access to the villa will be barred and the wedding might be held there with only immediate friends present.

JOHN COOLIDGE IN A SERIOUS COLLISION

2 PERSONS SENT TO THE HOSPITAL, ONE WITH SERIOUS INJURIES

CAR DRIVEN BY WILFRED VENO CRASHES INTO GOV. TRUMBULL'S AUTOMOBILE

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—John Coolidge was driving an automobile of Governor John H. Trumbull when it became involved in a serious collision here Wednesday, a report by Policeman Henry H. Miller, witness to the accident, said today.

Previously, William Cunningham, chauffeur of the governor, had been reported the driver, when the car was in a collision which sent two persons to the hospital, one with severe injuries.

Miller was only a short distance from the intersection of Livingston and Lawrence streets, when a light touring car driven by Wilfred Veno, a former Boston and New Haven hockey player, and carrying his mother, Mrs. Mary Veno, crashed into the side of the governor's big sedan.

The policeman hurried to the cars. A young man stepped out from behind the wheel of the sedan.

After an ambulance had taken Veno and his mother to New Haven hospital, where the former was reported in critical condition, the policeman took the driver and his chauffeur companion to station five. "Reckless driving," said the policeman.

"Name and address?" demanded the desk sergeant.

"John Coolidge, Northampton, Mass.," replied the youth being questioned.

After a conference between officers, John went to his office in New Haven railroad headquarters, where he was more than an hour late.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—State Senator George Bender today said he would "demand that Governor A. V. Donahey begin an investigation into the shooting at Lorain Wednesday by three special Lorain prohibition enforcement officers."

Parole Board Head Statement of Loeb and Leopold Parole In 5 Years Is Challenged

HOOVER AHEAD OF SMITH IN THE DIGEST POLL

OVER 50 PER CENT OF SMITH VOTE INDICATED COMING FROM REPUBLICAN RANKS

COMPARISON WITH 1924 POLL FIGURES PORTENDS POSSIBLE CLOSE CONTEST

Hoover again leads Smith in the second week's returns from twelve states in The Literary Digest's 19,000,000-ballot presidential "straw" poll.

Smith is given 92,855 votes, or 31 per cent, and Hoover has 198,292, or 67 per cent of the total of 294,247 votes reported received. The 2 per cent remainder is distributed among the three minor candidates.

A significant feature of the poll is that over one-half of Smith's votes to date have come from former republican voters while Hoover has gained only about 12 per cent of his strength from erstwhile democrats, according to an analysis of "how the same voters voted in 1924."

No returns are scheduled as having been received yet from any of the states in the "solid south." Maryland shows 11,566 votes for Hoover as against 7,396 for Smith.

The democratic strength in this 1928 poll is twice that of the 1924 poll at the same relative time and with comparative returns. The Literary Digest points out. Coolidge was then leading Davis by a margin of over 4 to 1, it is said, while Hoover now leads Smith by 2 to 1. In the final returns the Coolidge lead was reduced to less than 2 to 1. If the democratic aspirant now gains similar strength as the present poll progresses, it is presaged that the contest will be closely fought.

While Hoover is leading Smith by 30,814 to 12,822 votes in the latter's native state of New York, it is indicated that these votes are only a fraction of the total to be received and include as yet none from New York City.

"Several details combine to temper the strongly republican suggestion of this early vote," The Literary Digest states. "Perhaps the most significant is that Governor Smith seems to be drawing more than one-half of his total vote from sources which were republican in 1924, for in his total of 92,855, it will be noted, 33,817 republicans as of 1924 are represented as against only 35,054 democrats. Nor is this surprising drift of republicans counterbalanced by the democratic drift to the republican candidate."

"An important factor in the first scattering vote from New York state, shown as 30,814 for Hoover to 12,822 for Smith, is the fact that the ballots thus far tabulated come entirely from districts outside of New York City."

"This more than two-to-one vote in favor of the republican candidate may be compared with analogous figures from the second week of The Literary Digest poll in 1924, when 17,920 New York votes were shown for Coolidge as against 2,764 for Davis, a preponderance of more than five to one as against two and a half to one in the present poll."

"The actual election vote in New York state in 1924 gave Davis 950,796 to 1,820,058 for Coolidge, while, in the same election, Smith ran ahead of Roosevelt by 1,627,111 to 1,518,532. The vote of New York City, generally admitted to be strongly for Smith, will begin to appear in these columns in the near future, together with the vote of the "solid south," as yet unreported."

"These factors, judging on the basis of the 1924 poll, may be expected considerably to cut down the republican lead, if not to bring the two candidates to a practical parity."

"In all considerations of The Literary Digest poll at the second week's stage, it must be remembered that it shows approximately twice the democratic strength shown by the 1924 poll at the same stage."

Minneapolis, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Forty-nine recent Minneapolis robberies were cleared up here late yesterday when three youths confessed widespread criminal operations.

CHICAGO'S 65TH BOMBING OF THE YEAR EARLY TODAY

Chicago, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Chicago's 65th bombing of the year and the fourth within 12 hours occurred early today when a bomb was thrown through the window of a southside store.

Walter Robinson, and his two children, Walter, Jr., 15, and Agnes, 11, who resided above the store were thrown from their beds by the blast. Property damage was estimated at $5,000.

It is believed that a beer racket feud was responsible for the blast.

COL. LINDBERGH FLIES TO ST. PAUL

REFUSES TO DISCUSS RUMORS OF COURTSHIP OF NEW YORK ACTRESS

St. Paul, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, who arrived here unexpectedly last night in a Curtiss-Falcon plane with Major Thomas G. Lanphier, his confidential advisor, was to leave here at 8:35 a. m. today as pilot of a tri-motored Ford passenger plane to Chicago.

Colonel Lindbergh refused to discuss rumors of his courtship of a New York actress but immediately went into conferences with officials of the Northwest Airways Company, a branch of the trans-continental air transport, of which he is technical advisor.

Major Lanphier will return the Curtiss-Falcon to Chicago while Lindbergh pilots the regular passenger plane of the Northwest Airways.

CRAMER, AMERICAN AVIATOR, LEAVES FOR BERLIN

Copenhagen, Denmark, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Parker D. Cramer, American aviator, left by airplane today for Berlin. Bert Hassell, his companion on the flight of the Greater Rockford from the United States to Greenland, left for Gothenburg, where he will be received by a big crowd, including the American consul. Hassell will make a short speech at the railroad station and then continue to other places to visit friends.

JOLIET PRISON WARDEN SAYS IT'S 53 YEARS

BOARD CANNOT ACT UNTIL OVER HALF CENTURY OF SENTENCE IS SERVED

2 WERE SENTENCED FOR LIFE FOR MURDER AND 99 YEARS FOR KIDNAPING

Chicago, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Controversy over the possibility of parole for Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, serving life terms in Joliet prison for the "thrill murder" of young Bobby Franks, became more involved today.

Loeb and Leopold have served five years of a sentence of life for murder and a 99-year sentence for kidnapping.

The statement of Hinton G. Clabaugh, chairman of the Illinois parole board, that, through an error in commitment papers, Loeb and Leopold would be eligible for parole in five years, was met today by Warden Elmer J. Green of Joliet prison, who declared the two slayers will not be eligible for parole until they have served 53 years.

"The law specifically states that the parole board cannot consider the case of a man sentenced to life until he has served 20 years of his sentence," the warden said. "In other cases the board cannot act until he has served one-third of his sentence. Since their life and kidnapping sentences are running consecutively, Leopold and Loeb cannot be released before 53 years."

HUENEFELD LEAVES CALCUTTA ON HIS FLIGHT TO CANTON

Calcutta, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Baron Gunther von Huenefeld, who is making an air tour of the Orient, left at daybreak on an 1,800-mile non-stop flight to Canton. In an interview with the United Press he said he had been delayed three days in Persia while he got a permit to leave Bushire as his permit had provided for a landing at Teheran and not Bushire.

FREE IN SIX MORE YEARS?

Richard Loeb (left) and Nathan Leopold, who four years ago were sent to the penitentiary for the murder of Bobby Franks, may be eligible for parole in six years, according to the recent announcement of Hinton Clabaugh, chairman of the state board of paroles and pardons. Speaking of Loeb and Leopold as "sons of wealth, who are pampered pets in Joliet," he explained that though the original "thrill murderers" were sentenced to life imprisonment and ninety-nine years, the mittimus were silent on the point of whether the sentences should run consecutively or concurrently, and that this flaw may lead to their freedom in six more years.

CONDUCT PROBE INTO DEATH OF INSANE PATIENT

Hastings, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Dakota county authorities and officials at the state hospital for the insane here conducted an investigation today into the violent death of Edward J. Walsh, a patient.

Walsh was killed by Jorgen Torgerson, another patient, who believed he was to be the victim of a death plot.

Torgerson said he killed his ward-mate with a meat-axe.

AGRICULTURAL EQUALITY VOTERS LEAGUE BUSY

BEGINS CAMPAIGN IN IOWA AGAINST HOOVER AND CURTIS

ADOPTS PLATFORM ENDORSING GOV. SMITH AND SENATOR ROBINSON

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—The newly organized Agricultural Equality Voters' League, composed of more than 200 regular republicans, began a campaign throughout Iowa today against the candidacies of Herbert Hoover and Senator Charles Curtis.

The organization, in its first meeting here, adopted a platform endorsing Governor Alfred E. Smith and Senator Joseph Robinson and condemning Hoover for the "wrongs suffered by agriculture."

Frank Murphy, Wheaton, Minn., legislative chairman of the "committee of 22," acted as chairman of the first meeting.

A paragraph of the platform said "we are not impressed with the qualifications of a candidate for vice-president whose nomination was the reward of deserting the cause of agriculture at the crucial moment."

The league will canvass the state, urging republican voters of Iowa "to place the welfare of our great commonwealth above party, and to become a great part of this movement for agricultural equality."

SENATOR CURTIS ENTERS CAPITAL OF OKLAHOMA

Oklahoma City, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Senator Charles A. Curtis, republican vice presidential candidate, entered the Oklahoma capital today to speak of farm prosperity before state fair crowds.

The senator was greeted by republican leaders and state dignitaries when he arrived at 7:30 a. m. They accompanied him to the Hockins hotel for breakfast.

He will address several thousand at the annual state fair at 10:30 a. m.

Aged Woman Dies from Burns Received in Bonfire

STRIKE RIOTS BY DOCK WORKERS BECOME SERIOUS

Sydney, N. S. W., Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—The South Australian government issued a proclamation today that a national crisis exists because of the strike riots by dockworkers at Adelaide.

Five hundred special police were issued rifles and red and white arm bands, and were drilled by army officers.

Sydney, N. S. W., Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Attempts were made tonight, apparently by striking waterside workers, to destroy the homes of two foremen employed by a Melbourne stevedoring firm.

Terrific explosions damaged the fronts of the houses. No one was injured, except a child, who suffered slight cuts.

A protective force of 2,000 special constables is expected to be encamped at Port Adelaide, where clashes have occurred between the strikers and volunteer workers, by tomorrow night.

ALSO STAND ON INLAND WATERWAYS

CHARGES RECENT REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION WITH LACK OF LEADERSHIP

TODAY SMITH MOVES HIS CAMPAIGN CARAVAN INTO WISCONSIN

By THOMAS L. STOKES (United Press Staff Correspondent)

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 28.—Governor Alfred E. Smith will move his campaign caravan today into the LaFollette strongholds in Wisconsin.

He carried with him a program similar to that by which the elder LaFollette retained his power in the state until his death, and which sent his son, "Young Bob," to Washington to fill his place. The democratic candidate, in his two-day stay in Wisconsin, will make a bold bid for the LaFollette support in his presidential race. A victory there would give him 13 electoral votes.

Smith may confer with the young senator while in the state. He is scheduled to leave here at 11 o'clock this morning and arrive in Milwaukee at 8:30 tonight. Tomorrow, the democratic candidate will confer with political leaders there, speaking at night in the city auditorium.

Milwaukee, according to advance reports, is planning a great welcome.

It will have to go far to rival the enthusiastic reception Smith received in Minnesota and the wildly exuberant hearing he received here last night—a hilarious, boisterously friendly meeting which sent Smith to his hotel with still greater hopes of carrying this state, where he now is conceded considerable strength.

The audience of between 13,000 and 15,000 which packed the city auditorium was hit from the moment he appeared on the platform with his brown derby. With a sweep, the audience rose to its feet from every nook and cranny of the huge hall. With one tumultuous shout it acclaimed him, and was quieted with difficulty. Hats were thrown in air, voices were strained.

Smith, inspired by the outspoken friendliness of the crowd, was his old characteristic campaigning self, and drew shout after shout of applause mingled with uproarious laughter as he employed ridicule, satire and his New York buffoonery upon Herbert Hoover, Dr. Hubert Work, chairman of the republican national committee, Secretary of Agriculture Jardine and republicans in general.

He charged the republican administration of the last seven years with lack of leadership, and told the crowd, to its amusement, that he thought the president ought to give the people "the low-down" on what transpires in Washington.

He attacked Herbert Hoover on farm relief and inland waterways, challenged him again to state his position further on these issues, and defended his own position on immigration, drawing a thunder of approval when he praised the Germans and Scandinavians who make up a large part of this state's population.

The lights went out twice, as the democratic candidate was in the midst of his speech. It was explained that this was caused by an adjustment of the amplifiers which were carrying Smith's voice to a large throng in Rice Park outside the auditorium.

The cheering for the New York governor before he spoke was led from the platform by Louis W. Hill, president of the Great Northern railroad, and son of James J. Hill, known in this section as the "empire builder."

In his speech tomorrow night in Milwaukee, which will close his western speaking tour, the democratic candidate will discuss his prohibition modification views, a subject popular in Wisconsin. He also will pay tribute to the late Senator LaFollette who ran for the presidency on an independent ticket in 1924 and polled nearly 5,000,000 votes, running ahead of John W. Davis, the democratic candidate, in most of the western states which Smith visited.

Gov. Smith assigned responsibility for failure of farm relief and an adequate inland waterway program to "lack of leadership" in the last two administrations.

HOOVER AHEAD OF SMITH IN THE DIGEST POLL

OVER 50 PER CENT OF SMITH VOTE INDICATED COMING FROM REPUBLICAN RANKS

COMPARISON WITH 1924 POLL FIGURES PORTENDS POSSIBLE CLOSE CONTEST

Hoover again leads Smith in the second week's returns from twelve states in The Literary Digest's 19,000,000-ballot presidential "straw" poll.

Smith is given 92,855 votes, or 31 per cent, and Hoover has 198,292, or 67 per cent of the total of 294,247 votes reported received. The 2 per cent remainder is distributed among the three minor candidates.

FREE IN SIX MORE YEARS?

Richard Loeb (left) and Nathan Leopold, who four years ago were sent to the penitentiary for the murder of Bobby Franks, may be eligible for parole in six years, according to the recent announcement of Hinton Clabaugh, chairman of the state board of paroles and pardons. Speaking of Loeb and Leopold as "sons of wealth, who are pampered pets in Joliet," he explained that though the original "thrill murderers" were sentenced to life imprisonment and ninety-nine years, the mittimus were silent on the point of whether the sentences should run consecutively or concurrently, and that this flaw may lead to their freedom in six more years.

JOLIET PRISON WARDEN SAYS IT'S 53 YEARS

BOARD CANNOT ACT UNTIL OVER HALF CENTURY OF SENTENCE IS SERVED

2 WERE SENTENCED FOR LIFE FOR MURDER AND 99 YEARS FOR KIDNAPING

Chicago, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Controversy over the possibility of parole for Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, serving life terms in Joliet prison for the "thrill murder" of young Bobby Franks, became more involved today.

Loeb and Leopold have served five years of a sentence of life for murder and a 99-year sentence for kidnapping.

The statement of Hinton G. Clabaugh, chairman of the Illinois parole board, that, through an error in commitment papers, Loeb and Leopold would be eligible for parole in five years, was met today by Warden Elmer J. Green of Joliet prison, who declared the two slayers will not be eligible for parole until they have served 53 years.

"The law specifically states that the parole board cannot consider the case of a man sentenced to life until he has served 20 years of his sentence," the warden said. "In other cases the board cannot act until he has served one-third of his sentence. Since their life and kidnapping sentences are running consecutively, Leopold and Loeb cannot be released before 53 years."

HUENEFELD LEAVES CALCUTTA ON HIS FLIGHT TO CANTON

Calcutta, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Baron Gunther von Huenefeld, who is making an air tour of the Orient, left at daybreak on an 1,800-mile non-stop flight to Canton. In an interview with the United Press he said he had been delayed three days in Persia while he got a permit to leave Bushire as his permit had provided for a landing at Teheran and not Bushire.

CONDUCT PROBE INTO DEATH OF INSANE PATIENT

Hastings, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Dakota county authorities and officials at the state hospital for the insane here conducted an investigation today into the violent death of Edward J. Walsh, a patient.

Walsh was killed by Jorgen Torgerson, another patient, who believed he was to be the victim of a death plot.

Torgerson said he killed his ward-mate with a meat-axe.

AGRICULTURAL EQUALITY VOTERS LEAGUE BUSY

BEGINS CAMPAIGN IN IOWA AGAINST HOOVER AND CURTIS

ADOPTS PLATFORM ENDORSING GOV. SMITH AND SENATOR ROBINSON

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—The newly organized Agricultural Equality Voters' League, composed of more than 200 regular republicans, began a campaign throughout Iowa today against the candidacies of Herbert Hoover and Senator Chas. Curtis.

The organization, in its first meeting here, adopted a platform endorsing Governor Alfred E. Smith and Senator Joseph Robinson and condemning Hoover for the "wrong suffered by agriculture."

Frank Murphy, Wheaton, Minn., legislative chairman of the "committee of 22," acted as chairman of the first meeting.

A paragraph of the platform said "we are not impressed with the qualifications of a candidate for vice-president whose nomination was the reward of deserting the cause of agriculture at the crucial moment."

The league will canvass the state, urging republican voters of Iowa "to place the welfare of our great commonwealth above party, and to become a great part of this movement for agricultural equality."

SENATOR CURTIS ENTERS CAPITAL OF OKLAHOMA

Oklahoma City, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Senator Charles A. Curtis, republican vice presidential candidate, entered the Oklahoma capital today to speak of farm prosperity before state fair crowds.

The senator was greeted by republican leaders and state dignitaries when he arrived at 7:30 a. m. They accompanied him to the Hickins hotel for breakfast.

He will address several thousand at the annual state fair at 10:30 a. m.

Aged Woman Dies from Burns Received in Bonfire

St. Paul, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Mrs. Ann McCarthy, 70, died at Ancker hospital here today from burns she received while tending a bonfire. The aged woman's dress became ignited when wind blew flames in her direction.

STRIKE RIOTS BY DOCK WORKERS BECOME SERIOUS

Sydney, N. S. W., Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—The South Australian government issued a proclamation today that a national crisis exists because of the strike riots by dockworkers at Adelaide.

Five hundred special police were issued rifles and red and white arm bands, and were drilled by army officers.

Sydney, N. S. W., Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—Attempts were made tonight, apparently by striking waterside workers, to destroy the homes of two foremen employed by a Melbourne stevedoring firm.

Terrific explosions damaged the fronts of the houses. No one was injured, except a child, who suffered slight cuts.

A protective force of 2,000 special constables is expected to be encamped at Port Adelaide, where clashes have occurred between the strikers and volunteer workers, by tomorrow night.

CHARGES RECENT REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION WITH LACK OF LEADERSHIP

TODAY SMITH MOVES HIS CAMPAIGN CARAVAN INTO WISCONSIN

By THOMAS L. STOKES
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 28.—Governor Alfred E. Smith will move his campaign caravan today into the LaFollette strongholds in Wisconsin.

He carried with him a program similar to that by which the elder LaFollette retained his power in the state until his death, and which sent his son, "Young Bob," to Washington to fill his place. The democratic candidate, in his two-day stay in Wisconsin, will make a bold bid for the LaFollette support in his presidential race. A victory there would give him 13 electoral votes.

Smith may confer with the young senator while in the state. He is scheduled to leave here at 11 o'clock this morning and arrive in Milwaukee at 8:30 tonight. Tomorrow, the democratic candidate will confer with political leaders there, speaking at night in the city auditorium.

Milwaukee, according to advance reports, is planning a great welcome. It will have to go far to rival the enthusiastic reception Smith received in Minnesota and the wildly exuberant hearing he received here last night, a hilarious, boisterously friendly meeting which sent Smith to his hotel with still greater hopes of carrying this state, where he now is conceded considerable strength.

The audience of between 13,000 and 15,000 which packed the city auditorium was hit from the moment he appeared on the platform with his brown derby. With a sweep, the audience rose to its feet from every nook and cranny of the huge hall. With one tumultuous shout it acclaimed him, and was quieted with difficulty. Hats were thrown in air, voices were strained.

Smith, inspired by the outspoken friendliness of the crowd, was his old characteristic campaigning self, and drew shout after shout of applause mingled with uproarious laughter as he employed ridicule, satire and his New York buffoonery upon Herbert Hoover, Dr. Hubert Work, chairman of the republican national committee, Secretary of Agriculture Jardine and republicans in general.

He charged the republican administration of the last seven years with lack of leadership, and told the crowd, to its amusement, that he thought the president ought to give the people "the low-down" on what transpires in Washington.

He attacked Herbert Hoover on farm relief and inland waterways, challenged him again to state his position further on these issues, and defended his own position on immigration, drawing a thunder of approval when he praised the Germans and Scandinavians who make up a large part of this state's population.

The lights went out twice, as the democratic candidate was in the midst of his speech. It was explained that this was caused by an adjustment of the amplifiers which were carrying Smith's voice to a large throng in Rice Park outside the auditorium.

The cheering for the New York governor before he spoke was led from the platform by Louis W. Hill, president of the Great Northern railroad, and son of James J. Hill, known in this section as the "empire builder."

In his speech tomorrow night in Milwaukee, which will close his western speaking tour, the democratic candidate will discuss his prohibition modification views, a subject popular in Wisconsin. He also will pay tribute to the late Senator LaFollette who ran for the presidency on an independent ticket in 1924 and polled nearly 5,000,000 votes, running ahead of John W. Davis, the democratic candidate, in most of the western states which Smith visited.

Gov. Smith assigned responsibility for failure of farm relief and an adequate inland waterway program to "lack of leadership" in the last two administrations.

"It is not sufficient, in my opinion,"

FORGET-ME-NOT DAY

THAT the work of the Disabled Veterans is a valuable auxiliary to governmental effort is perhaps best attested by the statement made by President Calvin Coolidge, in which he says: "The annual Forget-Me-Not observance of the Disabled American Veterans is particularly deserving of the most sympathetic attitude on the part of the public. The government is endeavoring in every possible way to alleviate the sufferings of those men for whom the war still endures. Yet, there are certain phases of this great problem in which outside agencies may be of vital assistance. The Disabled American Veterans has proved one of the efficacious auxiliaries of this task. Its cooperation with the Veterans Bureau on administrative problems, and with Congress on legislative matters has been impressively helpful, as has the organization's direct contact with individual veterans in bringing about the prompt adjudication of claims."

The Governor of the State of Minnesota, the National and Local State Commanders and Presidents of each of the service organizations and their auxiliaries, such as the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, have added their heartiest endorsements to the State-wide Forget-Me-Not Day Drive in Minnesota and throughout the nation. In his letter of endorsement, Governor Theodore Christianson mentioned the worthiness of the cause and informed the people of Minnesota that this is an opportunity and privilege for them to help in a practical way the men whose services can never be forgotten. In his letter of endorsement the Governor has stated as follows:

"Forget-Me-Not Day will be observed Saturday, September 29. Forget-Me-Nots will be offered the public on that occasion by representatives of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War."

"The cause is worthy of generous response. The funds raised will be applied to the needs of the thousands of young men who are today incapacitated through service in their country's cause. Let us forget, it is well that a day be set aside to honor in a practical way those to whom patriotic honor is due."

"I commend 'Forget-Me-Not Day' to the consideration of the people of Minnesota as an opportunity and privilege to give relief to those whose services can never be forgotten."

SENATOR SMOOT STRESSES TARIFF AND IMMIGRATION

IN a recent statement complimenting Herbert Hoover on his speech of acceptance, Senator Smoot, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Finance, stressed the tariff and immigration as major issues of the Presidential campaign.

"The Republican party," Senator Smoot said, "has ever been the exponent of protection to all our people from competition with lower standards of living abroad."

"We have always fought for tariffs designed to establish this protection from imported goods. We have also enacted restrictions upon immigration for the protection of labor from the inflow of workers faster than we can absorb them without breaking down our wage levels. The Republican principles of an effective control of imported goods and of immigration have contributed greatly to the prosperity of our country. There is no selfishness in this defense of our standard of living."

"A general reduction in the tariff would admit a flood of goods from abroad; it would injure every home. It would fill our streets with idle workers. It would destroy the returns to our dairymen, our fruit, flax and livestock growers, and our other farmers. We have pledged ourselves to make such revisions in the tariff laws as may be necessary to provide real protection against the shifting or economic tides in our various industries."

JAMES T. HALE

MANY were shocked and sorrowed to hear that James T. Hale had passed away in his sleep at his Deerwood home.

Judge Hale was the first judge of the Duluth municipal court when it was established in 1885. He was an alderman of the city of Duluth, and he was a member and chairman of the Minnesota state tax commission. In all these public capacities he served his community and state loyally and with intelligence and kindness.

He was a good citizen always. He was a kindly, gentle soul who saw the good in everybody and could forgive the evil in them, when he could not avoid seeing it, for the sake of the good that he refused to forget. He was a friend of good causes, a supporter of right tendencies, an unflinching believer in the ultimate triumph of righteousness.

The communities that have known him and loved him will miss him sadly.—Duluth Herald.

POLITICS VIA RADIO

THE American public has an added convenience these days. People are able to absorb in the quietude of their home the best thought enunciated in political speeches.

Instead of worrying about seats, being jostled by the crowds, and spending time and effort to attend some meeting of national import, one need only tune in to hear Hoover, Borah, Smith, Robinson, Longworth, etc.

And it's very realistic too. The applause often overwhelms the static. Two interruptions in Governor Smith's speech last night were laid to fuses blowing out and were so explained by the announcer.

NEW ELEMENT IN CAMPAIGN

A NEW element in campaigns appears to be when Mrs. Somebody writes a letter to her friend, Mrs. Somebody Else and it is quoted by either side.

We do not think much of such correspondence as campaign material and think little if any publicity should be accorded letters which in many cases are of a confidential nature.

WITH frosts billed regularly, the sere and yellow leaf is making its appearance in the woods.

THERE seems to be plenty of coal on the market these days and fuel oil too.

ABOUT the only straw vote that challenges attention and comes near final results is that carried on by the Literary Digest. Two thousand clerks mail out 19,600,000 ballots and tabulate results.

GOVERNOR SMITH ATTACKS HOOVER ON FARM RELIEF

ion," he said, "for the president to state his views on great public questions in his annual message to the congress or in rare formal addresses. I believe that the duty rests upon him of talking to the American people and laying before them the facts to the end that when they make their determination on big problems of the nation, they may be in a position to act intelligently and to have their representatives in the senate and in the house express their reasoned opinion."

Citing governmental reforms in the state of New York during his governorship and attributing them to his practice of "carrying the problems directly to the people themselves," Smith declared that "because of lack of such leadership in the national administration, not one large, constructive achievement can be pointed to in the record of the last seven and a half years. And if the American people will search back through their minds they can see this, in sharp contrast with the Wilson and Roosevelt administrations," the democratic candidate continued, "Wilson and Roosevelt were leaders."

The audience cheered wildly when Smith declared it the duty of the president to give the people the "low-down on what is going on," and, referring to the administration, said "There seems to be somebody behind the scenes pulling the strings."

"The whole history of the last two republican administrations suggests that some hidden control, strongly reactionary in its tendencies toward the great questions of the government, has been in a position to dictate party policy from behind the scenes and delay the progress of great public developments which interfered with its plans or program. For that reason," the governor said, "prominent members of the republican party have walked out of its ranks and openly declared hostility to their party and disagreement with its reactionary tendencies."

Gov. Smith blamed "that hidden reactionary control" for the bolt from the republican party of the late Robert M. LaFollette, Sr., of Wisconsin and of the late Theodore Roosevelt and proceeded with a discussion of farm relief and inland waterways after asking "what more glaring exhibition of lack of leadership could be found in the republican administration than its handling of the farm relief problem?"

He reiterated his Omaha declaration for the principle of the McNary-Haugen bill, and did not endorse the equalization fee, leaving the question of the machinery for carrying out his principle still open. Agricultural leaders such as former Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois and Sen. George Norris of Nebraska had approved the attempt to find other machinery for the bill than the equalization fee, he said.

He restated his position, taken in his acceptance speech, which would leave the choice of a route for an inland waterway to an engineering survey, admitting he previously had favored the all-American route across New York state rather than the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence route.

In speaking of the waterway issue, Gov. Smith said the administration had acted on Mississippi flood relief "only after a great catastrophe, which might have been avoided," despite promises made in previous platforms. The actual amount finally made available for flood relief, $15,000,000, "would scarcely scratch the surface of any comprehensive plan to bring about any degree of flood relief," he said.

The republican platform of 1928 "does not mention the St. Lawrence river nor the all-American waterway," Gov. Smith said after charging the republican candidate, Herbert Hoover, with remaining silent, in his acceptance speech, on the inland waterway project.

"It simply provides 'cheaper transportation for bulk goods from the mid-west agricultural sections to the sea.' It says nothing about the route. It dodges that question. It does not speak about a canal at all."

Gov. Smith concluded with a denial that he favors letting down the bars to immigration and declared he was only for such amendment to immigration laws as would relieve hardship. Upon this, he said, both republican and democratic platforms agree.

FORGET-ME-NOT DAY

THAT the work of the Disabled Veterans is a valuable auxiliary to governmental effort is perhaps best attested by the statement made by President Calvin Coolidge, in which he says: "The annual Forget-Me-Not observance of the Disabled American Veterans is particularly deserving of the most sympathetic attitude on the part of the public. The government is endeavoring in every possible way to alleviate the sufferings of those men for whom the war still endures. Yet, there are certain phases of this great problem in which outside agencies may be of vital assistance. The Disabled American Veterans has proved one of the efficacious auxiliaries of this task. Its cooperation with the Veterans Bureau on administrative problems, and with Congress on legislative matters has been impressively helpful, as has the organization's direct contact with individual veterans in bringing about the prompt adjudication of claims."

The Governor of the State of Minnesota, the National and Local State Commanders and Presidents of each of the service organizations and their auxiliaries, such as the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, have added their heartiest endorsements to the State-wide Forget-Me-Not Day Drive in Minnesota and throughout the nation. In his letter of endorsement, Governor Theodore Christianson mentioned the worthiness of the cause and informed the people of Minnesota that this is an opportunity and privilege for them to help in a practical way the men whose services can never be forgotten. In his letter of endorsement the Governor has stated as follows:

"Forget-Me-Not Day will be observed Saturday, September 29. Forget-Me-Nots will be offered the public on that occasion by representatives of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War."

"The cause is worthy of generous response. The funds raised will be applied to the needs of the thousands of young men who are today incapacitated through service in their country's cause. Lest we forget, it is well that a day be set aside to honor in a practical way those to whom patriotic honor is due."

"I commend 'Forget-Me-Not Day' to the consideration of the people of Minnesota as an opportunity and privilege to give relief to those whose services can never be forgotten."

SENATOR SMOOT STRESSES TARIFF AND IMMIGRATION

IN a recent statement complimenting Herbert Hoover on his speech of acceptance, Senator Smoot, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Finance, stressed the tariff and immigration as major issues of the Presidential campaign.

"The Republican party," Senator Smoot said, "has ever been the exponent of protection to all our people from competition with lower standards of living abroad."

"We have always fought for tariffs designed to establish this protection from imported goods. We have also enacted restrictions upon immigration for the protection of labor from the inflow of workers faster than we can absorb them without breaking down our wage levels. The Republican principles of an effective control of imported goods and of immigration have contributed greatly to the prosperity of our country. There is no selfishness in this defense of our standard of living."

"A general reduction in the tariff would admit a flood of goods from abroad; it would injure every home. It would fill our streets with idle workers. It would destroy the returns to our dairymen, our fruit, flax and livestock growers, and our other farmers. We have pledged ourselves to make such revisions in the tariff laws as may be necessary to provide real protection against the shifting or economic tides in our various industries."

... it protects against friction and heat.

Only when you have complete confidence in your motor oil can you really enjoy today's high-speed motors and high-speed motoring. Such confidence comes as a matter of course when your crankcase contains a full measure of Shell. Drive for an hour or tour for a week, you know that there is no need to worry about lubrication...that this sturdy, dependable oil will be a constant protection against heat and friction.

Shell Motor Oil meets modern requirements with ample in reserve. Crude oils, selected for their rich lubricating properties, form its base. The Shell refining process preserves intact all the natural heat resistance of the crude because no extremely high temperatures are employed. The result is an oil of just the right body...it flows freely, yet "stands the gaff." For carefree motoring use Shell Motor Oil exclusively.

POSSIBILITY THAT THE WORLD SERIES MAY BE POSTPONED

NATIONAL RACE MAY END IN NEW YORK-CARDS TIE

YANKEES IN AMERICAN LEAGUE SAFELY HEADED TO ANOTHER PENNANT

CARDS IN NATIONAL LEAD BY 1 GAME, HAVE 3 MORE TO PLAY

By FRANK GETTY (United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 28.—The possibility of a postponement of the world series, scheduled to start next Thursday, arose today when it became apparent that there was considerable chance of the National League pennant race ending in a tie between the New York Giants and the St. Louis Cardinals.

The New York Yankees are safely in line for their third successive American League championship, and cannot be beaten unless they lose all their remaining games and the Philadelphia Athletics win three straight.

In the National League, the Cardinals lead by one game and have three more to play, the last with the Giants themselves at the Polo Grounds on Sunday.

The Giants have two more games to play with the Chicago Cubs before they meet the Cardinals, who are playing the Boston Braves today and tomorrow.

The standings:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.	Behind
St. Louis	93	58	.615
New York	92	59	.609	1

It can be seen at a glance that if the Giants do as well against the Cubs as the Red Birds do at Boston, both winning two, for example, the leaders will meet on Sunday with St. Louis still leading by a single game. And if the Giants win that Sunday game, the teams will be tied.

Under the rules, they would then engage in a "three-game" series—i. e., best two out of three—to decide the championship. A vote of the National directors would decide the conditions for such a series, but it seems certain that the winner would not be required to enter the world series immediately thereafter.

If the Giants lose or gain a game today or tomorrow, the possibility of a tie following Sunday's battle will be removed. But if the Giants gained two games in the next two days, the Cardinals could tie things up by winning at the Polo Grounds.

BRAINERD HIGH COMPETES IN A HARD BATTLE AT ST. CLOUD TODAY

Coach Kasch's gridders were meeting stiff opposition this afternoon in their game at St. Cloud with the St. Cloud Cathedral eleven.

The Granite City team has gained for itself favorable praise from coaches throughout the state for aggressiveness, clean play, fast running and execution of plays.

The team considerably outweighs the Brainerd men, it was noticed in the warming up before the game. The game started at 3:45 P. M. with a large following of St. Cloud and Brainerd fans on hand.

Brainerd lined up as follows: Lammon, le. Paine, lt; Abrahamson, lg; Haultala, c; Foster, rt; Gelst; Goedertz, re; Gabion, qb; Dybvik, lb; Swanson, rh; Fuller, fb.

On the sidelines waiting to relieve any of the Brainerd men were the following: Garvey, H. McCaffrey, G. McCaffrey, Alex Nelson, Larson, Kleven, Halvorson, Hoffbauer and Lien. Lammon who played left end for Brainerd against Milaca last Saturday, was not in condition to play today due to injuries received in the opening game.

There will be no game here tomorrow.

FIRE ALONG EASTERN SECTOR, IN WORKOUTS

MAJOR ELEVEN PREDICTED TO HAVE FEW HEAVY GAMES

ARMY AND NAVY APPARENTLY HAVE THE TWO STIFFEST GAMES

By GEORGE KIRKSEY

New York, Sept. 28.—(UP)—The first shot in the annual fall gridiron campaign will be fired along the eastern sector tomorrow.

A few of the outstanding teams—Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Brown and Georgetown—do not play their opening games until Saturday, Oct. 6, but a larger part of the eastern schools open pigskin warfare tomorrow.

Most of the games are expected to prove little more than workouts for the major eleven. The Army and Navy apparently have the two stiffest games, but even they may not be hard once Biff Jones and Navy Bill Ingram place their array of stars on the field.

Boston University held the Army to two touchdowns last year, and tomorrow will try to register its first major upset of the season. All Boston has to do to win is stop Chris Cagle, the Louisiana flash, Murrell, the Minnesota ram, and a few other stellar ball carriers that only Yale could halt last season.

Davis-Elkins, the Little Elkins, West Virginia team which beat West Virginia last Saturday, is primed for the Navy. The Middies have been retarded by illness and injuries, but should repeat their 27 to 0 victory of last year.

New York University, with one of the most promising teams in the east, is expected to roll up a big score against Little Niagara.

Jess Hawley has not selected Dartmouth's quarterback for the first game against Norwich. He used Harris, McDonough and Breithut at that position in the last practice.

A 75-yard run by Phil Strubing and a 50-yard run by Jack Norman featured a practice game in which Princeton's varsity scored five touchdowns yesterday against the scrubs. The Tigers, more and more, look like one of the east's strongest squads.

Columbia's eleven received a severe blow on the eve of its first game when Ray Hanley, veteran 195-pound full-back of last year, was declared scholastically ineligible. Coach Crowley had made Hanley over into a lineman and expected him to fill one of the guardposts against Vermont tomorrow.

N. Y. GIANTS FACE THE CUBS IN 3RD GAME

GIANTS ARE ONE FULL GAME BEHIND THE ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

BUSH ON MOUND FOR CUBS, OPPOSED BY LARRY BENTON

Polo Grounds, New York, Sept. 28.—(UP)—The New York Giants faced the Chicago Cubs in the third game of the series at the Polo Grounds this afternoon, one full game behind the St. Louis Cardinals in the National League pennant race.

Bush was on the mound for the Cubs and was opposed by Larry Benton, ace of the Giants' staff.

The Cubs scored two runs in the second inning. Grimm singled to right center. Hartnett forced Grimm at second but reached first on a fielder's choice. Beck singled to center, Hartnett taking third. Hogan threw out Bush, both runners advancing. English singled to left center, scoring Hartnett and Beck. Lindstrom threw out Maguire.

The Giants scored one run in the second. Hogan struck out. Reese singled to center. Hartnett was injured by a foul tip and was replaced by Gonzales. Benton singled to right, Reese going to third. Welsh hit a sacrifice fly to Stephenson, scoring Reese. Maguire tossed out O'Doul.

Gonzales, Chicago catcher, hit a home run to open the fourth inning. The ball bounced into the right field stands and the umpires ruled it a home run. Beck struck out and Bush lined out to Reese. English hit a homer into the left field stands. Maguire fied out to Welsh.

CARDS HOPEFUL OF INCREASING THEIR LEAD

GROVER CLEVELAND ALEXANDER PITCHING FOR THE LEAGUE LEADERS

BECAUSE OF CHILLY WEATHER CROWD OF ONLY 2,000 IN ATTENDANCE

Braves Field, Boston, Sept. 28.—(UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals took the field today for the second game of their three-game series with the Braves, hopeful of increasing their lead over the New York Giants in the National League pennant race. Grover Cleveland Alexander pitched for the league-leaders. He was opposed by Bob Smith. Because of the chilly weather, a crowd of but 2,000 turned out to see the clash.

With two out, Rogers Hornsby hit a home run in the Braves' half of the first, scoring ahead of him Jack Smith, who got on base with a double and was advanced to third on Sleser's sacrifice.

Mueller scored a run for the Braves in the fourth when Spohrer hit an infield single with the bases loaded.

The Court of Last Resort

THE court of last resort in business is the public. Their decision is final. If the public places its approval on a product, accepts it, and buys it in increasing numbers, there are good reasons for it.

And if this happens in a highly competitive field like the automobile, then there are special reasons for gratification.

Durant Motors is experiencing this very thing, and we want the world to know about it.

We started with a modest production in January—the month of motor shows, and with each showing the demand increased, until the country gained the knowledge that the Durant new models were worthy of public interest.

And this is what happened during the year:

During the first six months of 1928 the entire automotive industry—motor cars and motor trucks—produced 6.4 per cent more units than in the same period of last year.

During this same period of time Durant Motors produced 49.9 per cent more cars and trucks than in the same period of last year.

The industry as a whole produced 332,906 more cars and trucks during the first six months of 1928 than in the same period of 1927. Durant Motors alone produced 23,000 more cars and trucks during the first six months than in the same period of last year. Durant Motors alone scored a gain of 17 per cent of the increased production of the entire industry. Returns from the forty-eight states of the Union show that Durant gained 20.5 per cent in registrations during the first six months of 1928 over the same period of last year.

Durant Motors is growing seven times as fast as the automotive industry itself. We appreciate this increased public confidence.

In the next few days we are going to make a newspaper announcement relative to new Durant models. They will appeal to the public strongly for these new cars possess the features the careful buyer wants, and expects in his car today.

The public will be given a new conception of motor car value.

Your motor dollar will buy more than ever before in the size of car, in beauty of body design, in power, in appointments, in speed, in durability and accessibility, and all up-to-the-minute features.

And this statement is made with a full appreciation of what is going on in the entire automobile industry. The name "Durant" will continue to stand for those principles in motor car designing, engineering, building and in the selling of popular priced automobiles to justify an ever-increasing demand from the public.

N. Y. GIANTS FACE THE CUBS IN 3RD GAME

GIANTS ARE ONE FULL GAME BE-HIND THE ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

BUSH ON MOUND FOR CUBS, OP-POSED BY LARRY
BENTON

Polo Grounds, New York, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—The New York Giants faced the Chicago Cubs in the third game of the series at the Polo Grounds this afternoon, one full game behind the St. Louis Cardinals in the National League pennant race.

Bush was on the mound for the Cubs and was opposed by Larry Benton, ace of the Giants' staff.
The Cubs scored two runs in the second inning. Grimm singled to right center. Hartnett forced Grimm at second but reached first on a fielder's choice. Beck singled to center, Hartnett taking third. Hogan threw out Bush, both runners advancing. English singled to left center, scoring Hartnett and Beck. Lindstrom threw out Maguire.

The Giants scored one run in the second. Hogan struck out, Reese singled to center. Hartnett was injured by a foul tip and was replaced by Gonzales. Benton singled to right, Reese going to third. Welsh hit a sacrifice fly to Stephenson, scoring Reese. Maguire tossed out O'Doul.

Gonzales, Chicago catcher, hit a home run to open the fourth inning. The ball bounced into the right field stands and the umpires ruled it a home run. Beck struck out and Bush lined out to Reese. English hit a homer into the left field stands. Maguire fled out to Welsh.

CARDS HOPEFUL OF INCREASING THEIR LEAD

GROVER CLEVELAND ALEXAND-ER PITCHING FOR THE LEAGUE LEADERS

BECAUSE OF CHILLY WEATHER
CROWD OF ONLY 2,000 IN ATTENDANCE

Braves Field, Boston, Sept. 28.—(U.P.)—The St. Louis Cardinals took the field today for the second game of their three-game series with the Braves, hopeful of increasing their lead over the New York Giants in the National League pennant race. Grover Cleveland Alexander pitched for the league leaders. He was opposed by Bob Smith. Because of the chilly weather, a crowd of but 2,000 turned out to see the clash.

With two out, Rogers Hornsby hit a home run in the Braves' half of the first, scoring ahead of him Jack Smith, who got on base with a double and was advanced to third on Sisler's sacrifice.

Mueller scored a run for the Braves in the fourth when Spohrer hit an infield single with the bases loaded.

The Court of Last Resort

THE court of last resort in business is the public. Their decision is final. If the public places its approval on a product, accepts it, and buys it in increasing numbers, there are good reasons for it. And if this happens in a highly competitive field like the automobile, then there are special reasons for gratification.

Durant Motors is experiencing this very thing, and we want the world to know about it. We started with a modest production in January—the month of motor shows, and with each showing the demand increased, until the country gained the knowledge that the Durant new models were worthy of public interest.

And this is what happened during the year:

During the first six months of 1928 the entire automotive industry—motor cars and motor trucks—produced 6.4 per cent more units than in the same period of last year.

During this same period of time Durant Motors produced 49.9 per cent more cars and trucks than in the same period of last year.

The industry as a whole produced 332,906 more cars and trucks during the first six months of 1928 than in the same period of 1927. Durant Motors alone produced 23,000 more cars and trucks during the first six months than in the same period of last year. Durant Motors alone scored a gain of 17 per cent of the increased production of the entire industry. Returns from the forty-eight states of the Union show that Durant gained 20.5 per cent in registrations during the first six months of 1928 over the same period of last year.

Durant Motors is growing seven times as fast as the automotive industry itself. We appreciate this increased public confidence. In the next few days we are going to make a newspaper announcement relative to new Durant models. They will appeal to the public strongly for these new cars possess the features the careful buyer wants, and expects in his car today. The public will be given a new conception of motor car value.

Your motor dollar will buy more than ever before in the size of car, in beauty of body design, in power, in appointments, in speed, in durability and accessibility, and all up-to-the-minute features.

And this statement is made with a full appreciation of what is going on in the entire automobile industry. The name "Durant" will continue to stand for those principles in motor car designing, engineering, building and in the selling of popular priced automobiles to justify an ever-increasing demand from the public.

OPEN LIQUOR DRIVE IN COUNTY WIDE CLEANUP

County Authorities Declare War on All Bootleggers and "Speakeasies"

22 WARRANTS SERVED

Sheriff Cites One Case Where Brainerd Children Became Drunk on Beer

With warrants served on 22 alleged bootleggers and operators of "speakeasies," Crow Wing county authorities went ahead today in their drive to cleanup and remedy the county of conditions reported deplorable.

Two convictions were made in municipal court this morning, one yesterday afternoon and one waived examination and was held to the district court.

Judge J. H. Warner who is conducting the cases in municipal court will be kept busy today and tomorrow as arraignments continue.

The cleanup was carried out through the joint cooperation of County Attorney A. J. Sullivan, County Sheriff Claus A. Theorin and his force of deputies.

Sheriff Theorin reported to the Dispatch today that a complete cleanup of the county from beer "farms," bootleggers, was the aim which he and his men hope to accomplish, thus safeguarding the morals of young boys and girls.

He reported existing conditions where young girls and boys went to places where beer was sold and after drinking became disgustingly intoxicated. He told of one beer manufacturer near Brainerd who sold beer to children not over 12 years of age. He gave names of young Brainerd boys and girls who frequented a beer "farm" west of the city and then left in intoxicated condition to drive their cars wrecklessly about the city and country. He told of similar conditions at range towns.

County forces were busy today bringing the alleged operators of liquor places to justice. As the prisoners are brought to Brainerd they will be arraigned in municipal court.

C. A. Reiter, of Pequot, was arraigned yesterday afternoon on a charge of maintaining a nuisance. He entered a plea of guilty and was fined $40 and costs or 40 days in jail. Reiter asserted that he manufactured the beer secured as evidence from his place for his own use, that a physician had advised him to drink beer to improve his health.

Ed. Grondin, West Brainerd, charged with maintaining a nuisance was arraigned before Judge Warner this morning and entered a plea of guilty. He was fined $100 and costs or in lieu of the fine 90 days in the county jail. A stay in sentence was granted for 30 days.

Mrs. W. L. Viers, of Midland, entered a plea of guilty to maintaining a nuisance and paid a fine of $100 and costs.

Louis Bedore, Brainerd, charged with sale of liquor waived examination and was held to the district court under $500 bail.

While the sheriff's forces were on the way to Midland yesterday to serve a warrant on W. H. Gorman, barber, there, on the charge of selling liquor, they encountered him driving his car from Crosby to Midland. Searching the car, a gallon jug of moonshine was found. Gorman was arrested and is now in the county jail awaiting arraignment in municipal court.

The cleanup was started one month ago, Sheriff Theorin announced, although no complaints were made or warrants issued until all evidence was secured for conviction.

OPEN LIQUOR DRIVE IN COUNTY WIDE CLEANUP

County Authorities Declare War on All Bootleggers and
"Speakeasies"

22 WARRANTS SERVED

Sheriff Cites One Case Where Brainerd Children Became Drunk on Beer

With warrants served on 22 alleged bootleggers and operators of "speakeasies," Crow Wing county authorities went ahead today in their drive to cleanup and remedy the county of conditions reported deplorable.

Two convictions were made in municipal court this morning, one yesterday afternoon and one waived examination and was held to the district court.

Judge J. H. Warner who is conducting the cases in municipal court will be kept busy today and tomorrow as arraignments continue.

The cleanup was carried out through the joint cooperation of County Attorney A. J. Sullivan, County Sheriff Claus A. Theorin and his force of deputies.

Sheriff Theorin reported to the Dispatch today that a complete cleanup of the county from beer "farms," bootleggers, was the aim which he and his men hope to accomplish, thus safeguarding the morals of young boys and girls.

He reported existing conditions where young girls and boys went to places where beer was sold and after drinking became disgustingly intoxicated. He told of one beer manufacturer near Brainerd who sold beer to children not over 12 years of age. He gave names of young Brainerd boys and girls who frequented a beer "farm" west of the city and then left in intoxicated condition to drive their cars wrecklessly about the city and country. He told of similar conditions at range towns. County forces were busy today bringing the alleged operators of liquor places to justice. As the prisoners are brought to Brainerd they will be arraigned in municipal court.

C. A. Reiter, of Pequot, was arraigned yesterday afternoon on a charge of maintaining a nuisance. He entered a plea of guilty and was fined $40 and costs or 40 days in jail. Reiter asserted that he manufactured the beer secured as evidence from his place for his own use, that a physician had advised him to drink beer to improve his health.

Ed. Grondin, West Brainerd, charged with maintaining a nuisance was arraigned before Judge Warner this morning and entered a plea of guilty. He was fined $100 and costs or in lieu of the fine 90 days in the county jail. A stay in sentence was granted for 30 days.

Mrs. W. L. Viers, of Midland, entered a plea of guilty to maintaining a nuisance and paid a fine of $100 and costs.

Louis Bedore, Brainerd, charged with sale of liquor waived examination and was held to the district court under $500 bail.

While the sheriff's forces were on the way to Midland yesterday to serve a warrant on W. H. Gorman, barber, there, on the charge of selling liquor, they encountered him driving his car from Crosby to Midland. Searching the car, a gallon jug of moonshine was found. Gorman was arrested and is now in the county jail awaiting arraignment in municipal court.

The cleanup was started one month ago, Sheriff Theorin announced, although no complaints were made or warrants issued until all evidence was secured for conviction.

RESULTS FROM SARGON AMAZING

Thousands of Sufferers Say Effect of New Formula Almost Unbelievable

TOTALLY DIFFERENT

Sargon Accomplishing Far-Reaching
Results in a New and Remarkable Way

When Sargon is given to half-sick, run-down men and women who are in a nervous, debilitated condition, the following improvements are noted in the majority of cases:

The appetite increases, the complexion clears, gas, bloating and hyperacidity are overcome, constipation disappears and a sense of physical well-being and mental alertness replaces a dragging body and depressed mind.

Sargon is accomplishing these amazing results in a new and remarkable way—the way that the men of science who labored for years to perfect this new epoch-making formula intended it to be done.

Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills are designed to exert a tremendous stimulative and upbuilding influence on certain vital organs and fluids of the body upon which good health largely depends. The system, besides being purified and strengthened, is toned up and invigorated.

Sargon is designed primarily for the correction of disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. At the same time as above stated, it is a powerful reconstructive tonic, for it naturally follows that any medicine that brings about proper assimilation of food and thorough elimination of waste products must have a far-reaching and most beneficial effect on the entire system.

Tens of thousands of men and women, of all ages, in all walks of life, have testified that they have been fully restored to the enjoyment of new found health and strength by its use.

Sargon may be obtained in Brainerd from Henry P. Dunn. Copyright, 1928, by G. F. Willis, Inc. —Advt

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

JANET WILDE is the young and pretty daughter of Fenimore Wilde, famous Broadway actor. His son, Frank, is an idler and spendthrift, and Janet mothers both father and brother. Fenimore Wilde dies, leaving his children penniless, and while Frank goes South to visit friends Janet obtains a job with John Montague, theatrical impresario. She makes friends with Leonard Quigg, a temperamental musician who loves her, and a brilliant young doctor, David Churchill, who is married. Her employer insults her and she resigns to accept the position of secretary to Dr. Churchill. During this time she has added to her list of friends Chester Quigg, an artist uncle of Leonard Quigg, and his young daughter, Alice. One evening David Churchill admits he is in love with Janet and is contemplating divorce from his wife. Janet is thunderstruck and tells him she does not love him. She promises to help him forget her by giving up her position, but seeing him occasionally. When he goes the telephone rings. It is little Alice Quigg—crying.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER XXV.

"W<sup>H</sup>Y, darling?" Janet tried to comfort Alice over the wire. "What is it?"

"If it wouldn't be inconvenient for you to come up to the studio I would be very much obliged," Alice said. "We have all been upset, and Daddy isn't himself. He says it's difficult to be himself and to tell the truth where his mother is concerned."

"Is his mother the cause of this trouble?" Janet asked.

"I don't want to be unkind," Alice answered. "But Grandmamma really is very troublesome, and if you could come up I would feel happier."

"I'll be in the subway in five minutes," Janet promised.

Critic pleaded to go with her, but Janet left him behind, and hurried to the studio.

Alice admitted her, and drew her into the kitchen. "She arrived late this afternoon," Alice confided. "Grandmamma has been carrying on ever since. She has to be seen to be believed."

"But surely she can't make you cry, can she?" Janet demanded.

"Grandmamma's day is never complete until she has made somebody cry," Alice told her. "This makes me feel very wicked inside. No one should feel towards an old lady with pink cheeks and silver-white hair the way I do! And I can't do anything with her."

"Hasn't your father any influence with his mother?" Janet inquired, naturally enough.

"I think if you saw her, it would be very easy for you to understand," Alice sighed. "She's such an example."

"An example of what?" Janet asked.

"Daddy says she's an example and a warning to any young girl," Alice explained. "She gets everything she wants in the same way a baby does—just screams until she gets it."

"What's that moaning noise?" Janet demanded.

From somewhere in the upper part of the duplex apartment came a voice. "Unwanted! Unwanted! Unwelcome! Unwelcome and unwanted!" This became a sort of chant.

"That is Grandmamma!" Alice

explained. "She may keep that up for hours."

"Is there any cause for it?" Janet wanted to know.

Alice nodded. "You see she arrived about half-past five, and she wanted to go to the theatre—to that musical comedy, 'Helen of Harlem,' so though Daddy and Leonard and I all tried to get seats there just weren't any, and she's furious. You see, Mrs. Ruby Quigg, although she is 77, likes the theatre. It's very embarrassing to take her there, because she goes to sleep, and then wakes up and says in a loud voice: 'Terrible tripe, my dear! Very different from what it used to be!' And once she made such a noise that the ushers had to ask her to leave."

"I think your grandmother sounds interesting," Janet remarked, as fresh wailing came from the upper regions.

"She's in the studio," Alice explained. "Come along and meet her. She's always nice to strangers, and they go away wondering why it is her family don't get on with her."

Janet followed Alice into the huge studio. There, enthroned in a high-back armchair, sat a little old lady with her feet on a footstool. She was a very pretty old lady, with a black lace cap on top of silver-grey hair and mild blue eyes. Her old hands held an ebony cane, and she was dressed in flowing black silk.

"Grandmamma, let me introduce Miss Janet Wilde," Alice said, formally.

"How do you do, Miss Wilde?" the old lady said mournfully. "It is a great pleasure to me, though it must only be a bore to you to meet a lonely old woman."

"But of course it's a pleasure for me to meet Alice's grandmother, Mrs. Quigg," Janet said smilingly. "You must be so fond of Alice."

"Fond I am, my dear, and many are the sacrifices I have made both for her and for Chester. Starved myself, I have, in years gone by, so that he might have the best of everything, although that is all forgotten. Unwelcome is his mother when she comes to the big city to see her son!"

"Could I bring you anything?" Janet asked solicitously.

"If I wasn't grudging a mouthful of nourishment, my dear, perhaps I could eat an omelette. Just

As Janet helped Alice prepare a three-egg omelette (for the old lady possessed a particularly healthy appetite) she took up the question of her age.

"She's nearly seventy-eight," Alice explained. "But she says she's not quite seventy."

Chester Quigg came tip-toeing into the kitchen.

"I've been hiding in my bedroom," he explained when he had greeted Janet. "If you knew what I have been through this afternoon! I shall have to get some woman to come here and help out until the old lady decides to go away again."

"Why don't you come and live with us, Janet?" Alice pleaded.

"If you were here, I think even Grandmamma might seem less of a burden."

"Come to us, child!" Chester Quigg supplemented.

Janet hesitated. She was leaving David, and she had to find something to do.

"I am leaving Dr. Churchill," she admitted. "That is, I am leaving him as soon as he finds someone else. I find—I find that I do not like being a doctor's secretary. But what would you want me to do?"

"Do?" Chester Quigg bellowed. "Nothing! Just come and live here. Act as my secretary, and I never want a letter written. Be a keeper to my mother and a mother to my child—be yourself and name your own salary."

A cane was heard tapping down the passage. Mrs. Quigg entered the kitchen.

"Faint I am! Faint I am—and all for lack of nourishment!" She looked venomously at her son, and fumbled in a black silk reticule. From it she extracted a quarter, which she threw on the kitchen table. "Could I have a cup of tea for that? And if it's not too much—a morsel of toast?"

"I've made you the most gorgeous omelette in New York!" Janet said, as she turned a golden brown morsel from the pan onto a hot plate.

"I really think I could be happy if I were to see a lot of you!" Mrs. Quigg decided as she pulled a chair up to the table, and sat down.

"Won't you do what we want?" Alice begged admiringly.

"I'll think it over," Janet promised.

Broadway Love

by Thomas Edgefow

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

JANET WILDE is the young and pretty daughter of Fenimore Wilde, famous Broadway actor. His son, Frank, is an idler and spendthrift, and Janet mothers both father and brother. Fenimore Wilde dies, leaving his children penniless, and while Frank goes South to visit friends Janet obtains a job with John Montague, theatrical impresario. She makes friends with Leonard Quigg, a temperamental musician who loves her, and a brilliant young doctor, David Churchill, who is married. Her employer insults her and she resigns to accept the position of secretary to Dr. Churchill. During this time she has added to her list of friends Chester Quigg, an artist uncle of Leonard Quigg, and his young daughter, Alice. One evening David Churchill admits he is in love with Janet and is contemplating divorce from his wife. Janet is thunderstruck and tells him she does not love him. She promises to help him forget her by giving up her position, but seeing him occasionally. When he goes the telephone rings. It is little Alice Quigg—crying.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER XXV.

"WHY, darling!" Janet tried to comfort Alice over the wire. "What is it?"

"If it wouldn't be inconvenient for you to come up to the studio I would be very much obliged," Alice said. "We have all been upset, and Daddy isn't himself. He says it's difficult to be himself and to tell the truth where his mother is concerned."

"Is his mother the cause of this trouble?" Janet asked.

"I don't want to be unkind," Alice answered. "But Grandmamma really is very troublesome, and if you could come up I would feel happier."

"I'll be in the subway in five minutes," Janet promised.

Critic pleaded to go with her, but Janet left him behind, and hurried to the studio.

Alice admitted her, and drew her into the kitchen.

"She arrived late this afternoon," Alice confided. "Grandmamma has been carrying on ever since. She has to be seen to be believed."

"But surely she can't make you cry, can she?" Janet demanded.

"Grandmamma's day is never complete until she has made somebody cry," Alice told her. "This makes me feel very wicked inside. No one should feel towards an old lady with pink cheeks and silver-white hair the way I do! And I can't do anything with her."

"Hans' your father any influence with his mother?" Janet inquired, naturally enough.

"I think if you saw her, it would be very easy for you to understand," Alice sighed. "She's such an example."

"An example of what?" Janet asked.

"Daddy says she's an example and a warning to any young girl," Alice explained. "She gets everything she wants in the same way a baby does—just screams until she gets it."

"What's that moaning noise?" Janet demanded.

"From somewhere in the upper part of the duplex apartment came a voice. 'Unwanted! Unwanted! Unwelcome! Unwelcome and unwanted!' This became a sort of chant."

"That is Grandmamma!" Alice

explained. "She may keep that up for hours."

"Is there any cause for it?" Janet wanted to know.

Alice nodded. "You see she arrived about half-past five, and she wanted to go to the theatre—to that musical comedy, 'Helen of Harlem,' so though Daddy and Leonard and I all tried to get seats there just weren't any, and she's furious. You see, Mrs. Ruby Quigg, although she is 77, likes the theatre. It's very 'barrasing' to take her there, because she goes to sleep, and then wakes up and says in a loud voice: 'Terrible trip, my dear! Very different from what it used to be! And once she made such a noise that the ushers had to ask her to leave.'"

"I think your grandmother sounds interesting," Janet remarked, as fresh wailing came from the upper regions.

"She's in the studio," Alice explained. "Come along and meet her. She's always nice to strangers, and they go away wondering why it is her family don't get on with her."

Janet followed Alice into the huge studio. There, enthroned in a high-backed armchair, sat a little old lady with her feet on a footstool. She was a very pretty old lady, with a black lace cap on top of silver-grey hair and mild blue eyes. Her old hands held an ebony cane, and she was dressed in flowing black silk.

"Grandmamma, let me introduce Miss Janet Wilde," Alice said, formally.

"How do you do, Miss Wilde?" the old lady said merrily. "It is a great pleasure to me, though it must only be a bore to you to meet a lonely old woman."

"But of course it's a pleasure for me to meet Alice's grandmother, Mrs. Quigg," Janet said smilingly. "You must be so fond of Alice."

"Fond I am, my dear, and many are the sacrifices I have made both for her and for Chester. Starved myself, I have, in years gone by, so that he might have the best of everything, although that is forgotten. Unwelcome is his mother when she comes to the big city to see her son!"

"Could I bring you anything?" Janet asked solicitously.

"If I wasn't grudging a mouthful of nourishment, my dear, perhaps I could eat an omelette. Just

Bird Bowers

The different types of bowerbirds found in Australasia build various types or bowers which serve as a stage whereon the male may display his grace and activity before his feminine audience. Some build cabins with lawns in front, some an arbor and others a sort of platform decked with mosses, flowers and bright berries. These bowers are entirely distinct from the nests.
